Guidelines & Instruction for ad submission

Select the ad size. Proofs of the rough drafts will be available no later than the end of December for changes and edits. These will be emailed to parents from capitaldomeyearbook@gmail.com. Emails used will come from the online order emails used, or those used on order forms. Please make sure you write your primary email on the form.

Photos:

- Each ad contains a number of photos allowed; provide up to the number of photos listed on ad guidelines (notes: sometimes less is more). If extra pictures are included, the staff will decide which one(s) to exclude.
- Decide which picture you want as the main photo. Label this as "Main"
- Photos need to be submitted digitally (jump drive, Google Drive, emailed etc.). Digital resolution needs to be as high a resolution as possible. If you send a photo and it is blurry, we will contact you for a better image. Contact us if you need us to scan images so that a time can be set up to do so.
- We will enlarge or reduce your photos as necessary. We will also "crop" the picture to its best advantage.
- We cannot use photos which have been cut, glued or taped to paper, or are in collages. They do not reproduce well, and we cannot be responsible for the image quality problems that arise.

Text:

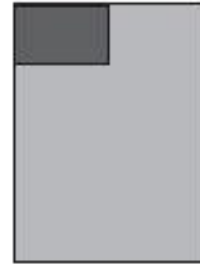

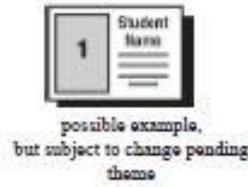

- The words you want to include in your ad are called "copy". Please write (print) your copy legibly on a separate piece of paper, or you may type and print it and attach it to the form, or e-mail it to capitaldomeyearbook@gmail.com with student name as the subject (email is preferred)
- We will choose a font for your copy when we compose your ad. We will transfer your copy exactly as it is written to the ad. Please double check your spelling and grammar.
- Take into account the size of your ad when writing your message to your child. A large quantity of text in any ad will end up being set in very small type which may not be easy to read. We have added guidelines for what we suggest as the maximum number of words for each ad size.

The Capital Dome staff reserves the right to change or rearrange any ad which is not appropriate for the yearbook without notifying you. This includes but is not limited to the exclusion of photos and text.

These are not what the ad will look like, these are to give you an idea of space for photos and text.
